

An aerial night-time photograph of the Chorleywood tennis court complex. The image shows several tennis courts, some with red and green surfaces, and others with green surfaces. People are playing tennis on the courts. The courts are surrounded by a fence, and there are tall light poles illuminating the area. In the background, there are some buildings and trees. The text "How to use the Chorleywood tennis court booking system" is overlaid in white on the image.

How to use the Chorleywood tennis court booking system

- Chorleywood tennis club now has access to an online court booking system that can be accessed via a website, or a mobile phone app. This is run by the clubspark website.
 - Here are the instructions in order to gain access and book the courts
 - You will receive an email from clubspark to invite you to join Chorleywood LTC on clubspark in order to access the booking system.
 - Click on the register or login now link in the email that will be sent to you and follow the instructions on this tutorial. This link will be unique to each member.
 - This tutorial is split into 2 parts- website version and app version
 - It will show you how to sign in and register yourself with the club, book courts and cancel bookings.
 - For more detailed online information click here

A close-up, low-angle shot of a bright yellow-green tennis ball resting on a green artificial turf court. In the background, a black tennis net is visible, slightly out of focus. The foreground shows a white line on the court and a patch of reddish-brown material, possibly a sand trap or a different type of turf. The text "Website version" is overlaid in white, sans-serif font in the center of the image.
